The season is full thirty days earlier than last year, with all the snow gone and the Red River showing no signs of very high water.

Another of the James Gang Captured.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., April 16.—A special received here from Jonesboro, Tenn., states that the man captured at Midway proves to be Frank Hudson, a member of the James gang. He had shot his mistress in the face, and she called on Detective Rouzas and gave the whole party away. The balance of the gang are within fifty miles of Jonesboro, in the mountains of Virginia. A man at Greenville recognized Hudson as being the same man he saw in the jail at New Albany, Ind., charged with an express train robbery, and who afterwards escaped. The detectives think he was in East Tennessee planning another raid. Officers from Maryland will be at Jonesboro to-night to take him to Hagerstown.

A Father Steals His Child from His Divorced Wife, and, with a Strange Woman, are Chased from State to State.

MEXICO, Mo., April 16.—Detective A. C. Burdick, of the Central Station, Chicago, arrived in this city in search of a couple who are traveling together as man and wife, and who had in their possession a bright-eyed little girl of six years, the daughter of the man, but who was stolen by her father from her mother, who some time ago secured a divorce from her husband at Pleanton, Ill., their former home. The detective has followed the couple through several States, following them once to Chicago, where they gave him the slip; next hearing of their whereabouts at Brunswick, Mo. On going to that point he learned just a little too late that the parties whom he wanted had flown. He then came here, found the individuals he sought registered as man and wife and daughter, at the Ring House. Burdick at once applied to Judge S. M. Edwards for an order giving him possession of the child, which was granted, and the detective, in company with his charge, departed to-night for the home of the little one's mother, much elated at the success of his capture. The little girl danced with delight at the prospect of being freed from her captors, for whom she seemed to have great aversion. The man registered at the Ring House under the name of S. M. Francis, but the detective says that is only one of his many aliases, and that his real name is Frank French, formerly a photographer of Pleanton.
